Keeping you up to date all year round

NOVA
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers,

As term 1 ends, I have been reflecting on our achievements and our struggles since September. It was joyous to see so many of you smiling at our parent consultations this week and it was clear that the vast majority of children were praised by their teachers for their hard work and progress. Many, many thanks to those of you that completed our questionnaire; we will send it out via email so those of you that we didn't catch will have the opportunity to do it at home.

One of our biggest priorities has been implementing the changes to our behaviour policy. As a school we have had to be consistent and persistent in ensuring that children who do the right thing and work hard are recognised for this, but we have also had to make some tough decisions about issuing consequences for less desirable behaviour. Our Golden Rights make it clear:

‘Everybody has the right to learn.’

‘Everybody has the right to be safe and happy.’

We have to do everything within our power to give every child the chance to flourish and the classroom MUST be calm, focused and of course, safe. You, as parents and carers, have been extremely supportive of our new policy and though we have to continue to strive for the very best behaviour as a school, I must praise the children for their efforts. I have shown two groups of prospective parents around the school this term and both commented on the ‘amazing’ behaviour and attitudes to learning. Our Local Authority representative, who also toured the school, thoroughly enjoyed seeing the children in action and was most impressed with their confidence and determination to succeed.

For Mrs Thorpe and I, the most wonderful experience this term has been ‘Hot Chocolate Friday’, a chance for our ‘Nova Superstars’ winners to share a warm drink and a biscuit and talk about their successes. I think the fact that we do this in the staff room makes it extra special! We are always captivated by the children as they tell us about their learning and all their news and it really is the most wonderful way to end the week.

Next term will be full of hard work, but we have all the Christmas celebrations to look forward to. Please check the dates section of this email to ensure you are well-planned! In assemblies we will be focusing on festivals and celebrations as this time of year is packed full of fascinating and spiritual celebrations for many different cultures and faiths- the children are always mesmerised by these.

Please ensure you do your very best to aim for brilliant attendance and punctuality. Janet and Mrs Crawford are working tirelessly to improve attendance at Nova, but we all play our part in ensuring children are in school and learning.

Have a wonderful half term and I look forward to seeing you all in a week's time.

With kindest regards,

Anna Morris
Headteacher

MEET THE TEAM

Name: Sarah Matthews

Role: Teaching Assistant

The best part of the role:

When you notice a child slowly improving in an area they find tricky and then being proud of their own accomplishments.

Hobbies:

Reading, spending time with my family on days out etc and the odd bit of exercise (when it's not too hot or too cold). I also like lazing around - if I ever get a chance - but that's not really a hobby!!

Favourite quote:

"It is our choices that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities"

Experience:

I was an SMSA for a year, then I helped in a Year 1 class for a while and then in any class that needed me. I then covered another TA's maternity leave and worked in Year 6 for a year. During that year, I completed and passed my 'Specialist Support in Teaching and Learning Level 3 (Diploma)' and am now a full time TA.
