Keeping you up to date all year round

NOVA
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a long and busy term at Nova and we are all ready for a very well-earned break. There have been many highlights ranging from the fabulous curriculum events that children have organised for their parents to come and see, to the absolutely wonderful Reception concert and Christmas market last week.

We have tried to find as many ways as possible to help families feel more involved with their children's education this academic year. Thank you to all the parents and carers who have attended Parent Forum, CAN coffee mornings and the parenting classes. It is our role to support you in the education of your child and we look forward to doing even more in the New Year!

We have lots of hard work ahead of us in January and beyond- it is vital that we all play our part to encourage the very best attendance and achievement for all. High standards are a team effort and Nova has the potential to show that there really is 'no star too far'.

Please enjoy the lovely photos that show what a wonderful school community we are. I am off to the Children's Hospital on Friday with James from Kingsweston Class and his mum to deliver the mountain of gifts donated by families and local businesses. I think I have seen more kindness this December than ever before; that should give us so much hope for our beautiful Nova Stars because with kindness, we can achieve anything! As Mrs Thorpe often says, "Let's sprinkle it around like confetti!"

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from all of us at Nova.

With kindest regards,

Anna Morris
Headteacher
